

Get the right advice today.

CAMERONS LAWYERS
EST. 1967

031 5832 1000
211 Edward Street, Shepparton

PLEASE DONATE THIS WINTER
CALL 13 18 12 OR VISIT VINNIES.ORG.AU

Vinnies
DONATE THIS WINTER

FOUR WEEKLY FOOTY SHOWS EVERY THURSDAY
— GVL, MFL, KDFNL & PDFNL

FIND ALL LOCAL FOOTY SCORES FROM ACROSS FOUR LEAGUES

GET INVOLVED! SEND US YOUR STUFF

FOXY & JR
News
FOOTY SHOW

POWERED BY TRIP
brokerhouse
REALTY

foxyandjr.sheppnews.com.au

Get the right advice today.

CAMERONS LAWYERS
EST. 1967

031 5832 1000
211 Edward Street, Shepparton

Tea time: Dawn Tricardo, Freda Brown, 92, and her daughter Elaine Grevis enjoy themselves.

Picture: Tara Whitton

Cups up for a cause

TREATS AND TEA FOR ANNUAL PREGNANCY AND FAMILY SUPPORT FUNDRAISER

By Tara Whitton

A delicious array of treats were on hand at the recent Godburn Valley Pregnancy and Family Support High Tea fundraiser event.

The event, organised every two years, began in 1975 and has since raised much-needed funds for the Shepparton-based office, which supports mothers with babies and toddlers in need.

Ran through the Caroline Chisholm Society, chief executive Harrold Cooney said the funds raised at the event would help to continue its vital work.

She said the society dealt with women who faced social isolation, mental health issues, the victims of family violence and those who were homeless.

The service, which deals with about 500 cases each year, will celebrate 50 years of operation next year.

Lead practitioner at JV Pregnancy and Family Support service Marne Chin said the event would help buy a variety of things for the office, including winter clothing and supplies.

The event featured tasty treats as well as a performance from reunited duo Linda Morvland and Julie Collins, who provided the musical entertainment.

Here to help: (Right) Mary Turnbull, Sue O'Brien and Ron O'Brien sipped on their tea while supporting a good cause.

All smiles: Greta Keenan, Sefra Gully and Maris Tavener enjoy the event.

Music to our ears: Singers Julie Collins and Linda Morvland recruited for the event, providing entertainment at the fundraiser.

Something to relish: Mary Dixon and Anne Cullen enjoy some delicious treats.

pressreader